

Our school is researching a native english teacher

The French school of Luang Prabang is a nonprofit private school established in September 2014. Anxious to welcome students without language requirements and to offer everyone access to a multilingual and multicultural education, we are recruiting a native English teacher.

Assignments	Hourly rates
Attend / teach, according to its specialities, mathematics, science and literature respecting an English curriculum which will need to be defined with the families concerned. Distance learning can be ordered for the less mastered disciplines.	About 12 hours
Teaching English as a foreign language	About 6 hours
Intervene as English speaker in art classes, music education and physical education in tandem with the master reference of this discipline to promote alternating between languages for students in a learning situation.	About 6 hours
Participate in the implementation of a coherent multilingual education. Engaging in reflection for the construction of the sustainability of the school and its evolution Become the master English referral for the school (supply of English books for the library, choose distance learning courses and textbooks for the courses of English language pupils ...) Ensure Monitoring and relationships with families.	About 3 hours

Profile :

- Professor qualified and experienced, trained preference for college education
- Native English (or bilingualism)
- Experience in multi-level classes (or desire to live this great experience!)

Skills :

- Team working
- Working with children from different cultures
- Place its action in a global educational process
- Designing Differentiated Instruction: joint intervention in front of different age and different levels students

Qualities :

- Adaptability (needed to work in a small school with fluctuating staffing)

Applications :

Records are to be dropped off at the school or email to the following address: info@ef-lp.org

- Cover letter
- CV
- Copies of diplomas
- Possible references

Conditions : fixed term contract 1 year

Full-time: 27h / week

Salary: 1000 USD / month over 12 months

Taxation: Supported by the Association

Visa and work permit: Supported by the Association

Tuition for children of teachers: Exemption except first entry fees, reinstatement, restoration and extracurricular